

Mexico

Day 1: Arrival in Mexico City

- Morning:
- Arrive in Mexico City, the capital and a cultural hub.
- Check into your hotel and relax.
- Afternoon:
- Explore the historic center: Visit the Zócalo, Metropolitan Cathedral, and the National Palace to see Diego Rivera's murals.
- Evening:
- Dinner at a traditional Mexican restaurant, perhaps in the trendy Condesa or Polanco district.

Day 2: Teotihuacan and Mexico City Museums

- Morning:
- Take a trip to the ancient city of Teotihuacan to explore the Pyramid of the Sun and the Pyramid of the Moon.
- Afternoon:
- Back in Mexico City, visit the Frida Kahlo Museum in Coyoacán.
- Evening:
- Experience Mexico City's nightlife or a Mariachi performance at Plaza Garibaldi.

Day 3: Travel to Oaxaca

- Morning:
- Fly or take a bus to Oaxaca, known for its culinary scene and indigenous cultures.
- Explore the city center, visit the Templo de Santo Domingo, and stroll along the Andador Turístico.
- Afternoon:
- Visit the Museo de las Culturas de Oaxaca and the adjacent botanical garden.
- Evening:

- Dinner in Oaxaca, trying local specialties like mole and mezcal.

Day 4: Monte Albán and Oaxacan Villages

- Morning:
- Visit the archaeological site of Monte Albán, a significant Zapotec ancient city.
- Afternoon:
- Explore nearby villages: Visit Teotitlán del Valle for textiles and Mitla for its unique mosaics.
- Evening:
- Relax in Oaxaca, maybe attend a cooking class to learn about Oaxacan cuisine.

Day 5: Hierve el Agua and Departure

- Morning:
- Early visit to Hierve el Agua, natural rock formations that resemble waterfalls.
- Afternoon:
- Return to Oaxaca for last-minute shopping or sightseeing.
- Evening:
- Departure from Oaxaca, or extend your stay to explore more of Mexico.